Interview Question: Describe the relationship between your job satisfaction at your previous/current job and the amount of time you were employed there.

- Ms. Sample indicates quitting a job without giving notice one time.
Interview Question: What motivated you to quit your job in the past?

- Ms. Sample states that she has had a problem working for a supervisor more than one time.
Interview Question: Your past problems with supervisors could be easier for me to understand if you describe the common issues of the problems, if any. What tends to cause these problems, from your perspective?

- Ms. Sample states that she has had a problem with a co-worker one time.
Interview Question: Describe the situation you had in the past concerning a problem with a co-worker.

- Ms. Sample reports that her primary motivation for changing jobs in the past has been opportunity for promotion.
Interview Question: What does "an acceptable opportunity for promotion" mean to you? How has this been lacking where you worked in the past?

- Ms. Sample states that she gave or plans to give no notice when she left or plans to leave her most recent job.

Interview Question: Why would you want to provide an employer with no notice of your leaving? What advantage does that have for you and what effect could that have on the former employer?

- Ms. Sample reports that the relationship with her current or last supervisor was fair.

Interview Question: If the relationship with your current or last supervisor was only fair, what prevented it from being better?

- Sally indicates filing a medical claim even though she wasn't sick or injured one time.

Interview Question: What reasons did you have at the time for once claiming medical issues even though you were not actually sick or injured? What justifies that action, from your perspective?

- Ms. Sample reports that her performance was rated as “acceptable” by her supervisor.

Interview Question: In light of the “acceptable” rating you received by your supervisor, what goals would you set to enhance your rating to “very good?”

Termination

History

This information was supplied by Ms. Sample concerning previous terminations.

- Ms. Sample reports that she left or is planning to leave her last job because she got fired.

Interview Question: Describe for me the details involved with your being fired from your most recent job.

- Ms. Sample reports that she has never been fired or quit to avoid being fired.
Interview Question: Can you attribute any specific personal qualities to the fact that you have never been fired (or had to quit to avoid being fired)?

Section III - Theft

Theft of Money

- Ms. Sample states that she is not sure if she has taken (stolen) any money from any of her employers.
Interview Question: You mentioned that you are unsure whether you have ever taken (stolen) money from any of your employers. Could you explain what you mean by “unsure” or otherwise specify any past experiences about this issue?
- Ms. Sample reports that she has never taken (stolen) money from her employers.
No interview question provided.
- Even though she put it back later, Ms. Sample reports that she has taken money from an employer without anyone knowing it once.
Interview Question: What sort of responsibility do we have when an employer’s money is readily available for stealing and no one is likely to know about it?

Theft of Property

- Ms. Sample reports that she has never taken (stolen) equipment, etc. from her employers.
Interview Question: Would you say theft in the workplace happens often and why?

- Sally states that the things she has taken (stolen) from any employer was not important enough to hurt their business.

Interview Question: How would you define “important” materials and property as it pertains to your statement that things you have taken from employers were not particularly significant? What sorts of things were these?

Theft of Data or Time

When reviewing this section of the survey with the applicant, this is an opportunity to share your company's policy concerning the use of confidential computerized information, Internet usage and other computer-related issues.

- Ms. Sample reports that on more than one occasion, she had access to confidential computerized business information at work.

No interview question provided.

- Sally reports that she did something with confidential information that was clearly in violation of a company policy one time.

Interview Question: Describe your violation of company policy concerning the use of confidential computerized business information.

- Ms. Sample reports that she violated company policy concerning the use of confidential computerized business information but is unsure how long ago.

Interview Question: What consequences occurred because of your violation of company policy concerning the use of confidential computerized business information?

- Ms. Sample reports that on more than one occasion, she had use of a company's computer to access the Internet.
No interview question provided.
- Sally states that she made personal use of a company's computer to access the Internet for reasons other than business more than one time.
Interview Question: Has your usage of company time and computer access to browse the Internet for personal reasons ever created a conflict for you at work? If so, please tell me about it.
- Ms. Sample reports that she has never utilized email, online chat sessions and/or newsgroups for personal reasons while at work.
No interview question provided.
- Sally indicates that she's not really sure when the last time was that she made personal use of a company's computer to access the Internet.
Interview Question: What was the policy of your former employer concerning personal use of the Internet while at work?

Section IV - Illegal Substance Abuse

Personal

Use

- Ms. Sample indicates that the most recent time she used illegal drugs while at work was between 1 and 3 years ago.
Interview Question: As a consequence, if any, of using illegal drugs at work, did you seek employer-sponsored therapeutic aid and if so, what has that done for you?

- Sally indicates that she currently uses illegal drugs on the weekends.
Interview Question: Your admittance that you currently use illegal drugs on weekends deserves further clarification. Please explain.
- Ms. Sample reports that within the last three years, she has not failed a drug test.
No interview question provided.
- Ms. Sample reports that she would agree to submit to a drug test if it were company policy.
Interview Question: How many drug tests have you taken at an employer's request and what results were derived?
- Ms. Sample reports that she has never used illegal drugs at work.
No interview question provided.
- Ms. Sample reports that her use of illegal drugs at work did not hurt her performance.
Interview Question: You have stated that your drug use at work did not hurt your performance. How do you know this?

Distribution

- Ms. Sample reports that she has never sold or given illegal drugs to co-workers.
No interview question provided.

- Ms. Sample agrees that the small amount of illegal drugs she sold or gave co-workers was not enough to hurt their performance.

Interview Question: You state that drugs you gave to co-workers did not hurt their performance, but how did you come to that conclusion? What about safety, efficiency or even just following company policies?

Section V - Attendance Issues

- Ms. Sample reports that she has not had any cases of poor attendance at work.
No interview question provided.

Part Two - Applicant's Attitudes

Introduction

This report provides information on the four Attitude Scales (Integrity, Substance Abuse, Reliability and Work Ethic). Each attitude is represented by a graph. The paragraph below each graph describes the applicant's attitude.

Section I - Attitude Scores

Integrity - Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Ms. Sample maintains a tolerant attitude concerning “borrowing” and the appropriation of property.

Substance Abuse - Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Sally generally considers the situation before taking sides concerning on-the-job drug abuse, but may occasionally side with more tolerant attitudes.

Reliability - Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Ms. Sample possesses enough confidence in her associates to prompt her reliability and dependability, but her skepticism can be aroused if her contacts fall short of her expectations.

Work Ethic - Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.

Sally may feel uncomfortable about “petty” restrictions on her personal autonomy like being to work on time or complying with specific procedures.

Distortion for this assessment is within the acceptable range.

Interview Questions

The following interview questions are presented for your consideration as you interview Ms. Sample. Note that the “Critical Issue” statements are written to the interviewer and should not be asked of the applicant.

Critical Issue: Does the applicant possess an overly careless attitude about rules or procedures concerning company property?

Applicant's Response to: Taking something from your company with the good intention of paying for it later is not the same as stealing. (Ms. Sample agrees)

Interview Questions:

- What's the difference between stealing and taking company property that you pay for later?
- Would you say that your opinion about this is somewhat speculative, or have you done something like this yourself, even though you had an excuse?
- Would you say that some rules concerning taking company property (even if you DO pay for it later) are too strict? Why?

Critical Issue: Does the applicant tend to equivocate about stealing in order to hide an unacceptable behavior?

Applicant's Response to: There are some circumstances that justify taking money or merchandise without permission from your employer. (Ms. Sample agrees)

Interview Questions:

- What circumstances would you say justify the taking of money or merchandise?
- What makes these circumstances different? What makes them appropriate?
- Is your perspective on this issue purely hypothetical, or has there been a time in which you acted upon these circumstances yourself?

Critical Issue: Is working while under the influence of illegal drugs a behavior that the applicant is likely to do?

Applicant's Response to: There is nothing wrong with using illegal drugs on the job if it helps you to relax and do a better job. (Ms. Sample agrees)

Interview Questions:

- You seem to feel that some people may have their own reasons to use illegal drugs while on the job. Have you ever done so yourself?
- You have stated that some illegal drugs can improve job performance. Can you explain more about this and have you tried this tactic to improve your own performance?
- Your statement about using drugs to relax on the job is interesting. Would this be a purely hypothetical point of view, or have you tried this yourself in the past?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant referring to herself?

Applicant's Response to: Most people try to do the right thing when given a chance. (Ms. Sample disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you believe that most people will not do the right thing when given a chance?
- Can you give a specific example that supports this belief?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant overly critical, negative and fault finding?

Applicant's Response to: I believe I should overlook other people's faults and make an effort to get along with everyone. (Ms. Sample disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you believe you should not overlook other people's faults and make efforts to get along with everyone?
- Any particular faults?
- Any specific individual or group of people?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant justified for feeling this way?

Applicant's Response to: So little of what I do is really appreciated by others. (Ms. Sample agrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you feel that you're not appreciated by others? Can you give a specific example? Is this one time or is this repetitive?
- What do you mean by "appreciated?"

Critical Issue: Is the applicant's reason for not always telling the truth reasonable and justified?

Applicant's Response to: Everyone should be expected to always tell the truth. (Ms. Sample disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- When is it okay to not always tell the truth? Give a specific example.
- Under what circumstances, if any, should you always tell the truth?
- Under what circumstances, if any, should you never tell the truth?

Critical Issue: Is the applicant going to follow rules?

Applicant's Response to: It is okay to get around rules, as long as you don't actually break them. (Ms. Sample agrees)

Interview Questions:

- When is it okay to get around rules?
- Work related example, what was the rule? How did you get around it? What was the outcome?
- When is it not okay to get around the rules?
- What is the difference between getting around vs. breaking rules?

Critical Issue: Is this tendency going to cause work related problems?

Applicant's Response to: It takes a lot to make me angry. (Ms. Sample disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- What stands out as the most common reason you sometimes get angry with others?
- How much is "a lot?" How short is the fuse?
- Can you share a recent example or experience, and the consequences?
- How is anger expressed, how strong is the reaction?

Critical Issue: Could this cause serious problems with the other employees?

Applicant's Response to: I prefer to stay out of heated arguments. (Ms. Sample disagrees)

Interview Questions:

- Why do you like heated arguments?
- Any recent examples?
- Who was it with?
- What was the topic? What was the outcome?

Section II - Summary Graph

The following scores for Ms. Sample are summarized in this graph. Higher numbers suggest a lower risk factor.

Integrity

Adherence to moral and ethical principles acceptable in the workplace

Substance Abuse

Attitudes toward substance abuse in the workplace.

Reliability

Attitudes concerning following procedures, dealing with authority figures and working positively with others in the workplace.

Work Ethic

Belief in the value of work and appropriate supervisory relationships in the workplace.
